Parents Condemn Annex

—For Grade VII

Grade seven pupils from Sidney, attending Patricia Bay Annex are likely to show a high incidence of absenteeism, Saanich (No. 63) School Board was told on Monday evening.

The trustees received a delegation of four ladies who objected to the use of the school building for Sidney schoolchildren.

Speaking for the delegates, Mrs. A. Brown observed:

"Many have to cycle. In view of the weather and highway conditions many will simply be missing."

Chairman George Chatterton told the parents that the pupils could not possibly be accommodated at Sidney. There will be one room vacant this year and probably no vacancy next, he commented. There are 40 pupils concerned in the complaint.

Old School

The use of the old Sidney school was suggested by the delegates. Mr. Chatterton pointed out that the building had been evacuated owing to the high cost of maintenance. It was also condemned, in part, by the fire marshal, he added.

The delegation finally asked that the highway be provided with signs and crosswalks for the protection of the children. The trustees promised every support of such a move and urged that the department of public works be approached directly by the Parent-Teacher Association.

Transportation for pupils is only provided beyond a distance of three miles.

PREPARE NEW PRESENTATION

Early in the fall Peninsula Players will present the first full-length play to be prepared by the new company. The new offering will be J. B. Priestley's "Laburnum Grove".

The play depicts a middle-class family in Britain, whose integrity is in doubt after some under-cover activities. A farcical mystery, it was highly successful in London, where it enjoyed a prolonged run.

The play will be directed by John Grey. Among those taking part will be Mrs. A. Rothery, Laurie Scardiff, Mrs. O. H. Henriksen and J. Elliott. Other members of the cast will be announced later.

Valuation Of Old Schools Is Urged

Saanich school board is to be urged next year to call for a competent valuation of school properties in the area for insurance purposes. All properties must be insured to within 90 per cent of their value. On Monday evening the board deplored the lack of clear indication of the value of the older schools. Estimates are to be invited by the board with a view to budgeting for the cost next year.

Leisure Islands Laughter

AN ISLAND STORY BY THE LATE F. W. MARSH
Chapter LXIII

We headed for Dick Hall at the "Anchorage", not far from the wharf.

As we have told, he started Mayne Island's tomato growing in glass houses on a large scale, taught the Japanese how to put him out of business, and saw them run out of business when Japan started war without declaration.

"Life here then was like the tug-of-war we used to pull on May 24 picnics," Dick said from the comfortable depths of a reclining chair. "Something had to give sooner or later."

Dick could sit back now and laugh at his younger years. As incidents occurred to him he chuckled softly. "In queer ways we thought pretty well of ourselves in those days. One stylish bushman of magnificent physique went to dances in shorts held up by suspenders. He wore chamois gloves.

"Most of us liked a drink, but one old chap bought a hotel so he could stay there all day and enjoy himself. At closing time he took a bottle home with him. As this routine was hard on profits, he decided to lease the hotel so he could confine himself to drinking up rent. Unfortunately, he also drank up capital so he had to go to an old man's home. In spite of that there was a happy ending to his story. He cheerfully told a visitor who went to commiserate with him: 'Why man, this is the best place I ever struck. If I'd known how comfortable it was I'd have been here years ago!'"

PROBLEM SOLVED

Dick's body curves shook with chuckles as he recalled one old-time character after another. There was one who solved the "high" cost of living in his day by buying a pig for his bush ranch.

"From now on," he declared to a Scottish lad "this ranch is going to pay." The Scot asked how. Was the old rancher going to fatten the pig for profit?

"Certainly not," came the answer. "I'm going to eat it." The Scot was horror-stricken at such extravagance. He was one of the hardest workers on the island, had developed a wonderful farm out of raw bush and had done it all on a diet of mush three times a day.

Another old-timer's character changed completely when he married a second time. He'd always used bad language.

Nominated

DEANE FINLAYSON

Provincial leader of the Progressive Conservatives, Deane Finlayson last week announced his intention of seeking the Nanaimo federal seat on behalf of his own party. Native son of Nanaimo, Mr. Finlayson contested the Oak Bay seat recently and was defeated. He ran third to Liberal P. A. Gibbs and Social Creditor Finance Minister E. M. Gundersen. The Nanaimo seat was formerly held by Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P., until it was split up this year into two seats.

New Teachers Are Appointed By School Board

Appointments of new teachers on a probationary basis was approved on Monday evening by the board of trustees of the Saanich School District. Teachers appointed were Miss M. Long, Brentwood elementary; Mrs. S. M. Chatwell, Sidney elementary (remedial); Miss D. L. Williamson, McTavish elementary; and D. S. Fraser, Mount Newton junior high, industrial arts and academic.

Preliminary arrangements for the parking of school buses in No. 2 hangar at Patricia Bay Airport were also approved.

Request of a teacher that the board pay his car insurance premium on the grounds that he uses it for the transportation of pupils was rejected. The trustees decided that the blanket policy now in force would cover any claim in this regard.

A second request was also turned down when a teacher asked for a car allowance. The board was sympathetic in view of the difficulty of finding a teacher for the school concerned. The matter was not within the authority of the board, it was decided.

OPEN SALARY NEGOTIATIONS

Saanich School District (No. 63) board of school trustees was notified on Monday evening of the opening of salary negotiations with the Saanich Teachers' Association. The board invited the association to furnish a copy of the proposed new schedule.

Island Mother Burned

—Condition Fair

When the tank of her refrigerator exploded on Saturday morning, Mrs. R. Reamsbottom, of North Galiano, was severely burned. She was flown by B.C. Airlines to Chemainus Hospital. Later on Saturday evening a second mercy flight took her to Vancouver, where she is a patient in Vancouver General Hospital. Her condition has since been reported as "fair".

Mrs. Reamsbottom was alone in the house, with her eight-year-old daughter, Linell. She fought the blaze until the child's screams attracted the attention of her neighbors, R. Warner, Jack Stafford and Mrs. M. Crocker.

Emergency treatment was given following medical advice by long-distance phone.

Mrs. H. Baines accompanied the young mother to Chemainus and commended the gentle manner in which the pilot handled his air ambulance.

LARGEST FISH THIS SEASON

Andrew Moore, Downey Road, proved himself a fisherman last Thursday when fishing off Coal Point. Mr. Moore brought in the largest salmon reported this week when he landed a 32-pounder.

IMPRESSIVE SUM

H.M.S. Endeavour, Chapter, I.O. D.E., closed its activities for the summer months with the announcement that a total of $67 had been collected for the Westminster Abbey Restoration Fund.

Saturna Residents Are Concerned Over Service

Residents of Saturna Island are protesting the present steamship service rendered to that community. Recently the Saturna Community Club wrote to William Manson, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. in Vancouver. The letter is reproduced as follows:

"The residents of Saturna Island enjoyed twice a week service by the 'Princess Mary' for many years. When you replaced the ship with the 'Princess Elaine', you found that it was necessary that the Saturna wharf must be rebuilt to accommodate this ship.

"At this time Saturna Islanders were assured by the C.P.R. that if it could persuade the Dominion government to rebuild the wharf that the 'Princess Elaine' would continue the same service that the 'Princess Mary' had provided. Our best efforts were put forward and the Dominion government, at great expense, rebuilt the Saturna wharf.

LLOYD GARDNER

Depicted above is Lloyd Gardner, of Sidney First Scout troop. The 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gardner is now enjoying the Scout jamboree in Ottawa. A Queen's Scout, Lloyd is the only member of the Sidney troop to attend the gathering in eastern Canada.

SURVEY MADE OF SIDNEY HARBOR

Survey parties from the Canadian government vessel, William J. Stewart, have been carrying out a hydrographical survey of the Sidney harbor during the past week.

The vessel, under the command of Capt. G. Billard, has been moored off Sidney since Thursday of last week. Officer in charge of the survey is G. W. LaCroix. The work is preparatory to the issue of new, large scale maps of the entrance to Sidney. The new charts will be available to cater to the increased traffic through the busy port.

Hospital Improvement Plan To Be Presented in September

—Ratepayers Invited To Approve New Structure

Village Sets Sound Precedent

Ratepayers of Sidney Village set a sound precedent this week, when the due date for payment of taxes saw a total of 85 per cent collections, reported Village Clerk A. W. Sharp, last week. Taxes not yet paid will be subject to a penalty.

This is the first year that the village has collected taxes on its own behalf. They were formerly payable to the provincial government, when Sidney was part of the unorganized territory of North Saanich.

Nanette New Awarded Red Cross Badge

Impressive record achieved for two years running by Galiano Island was recognized recently by the Canadian Red Cross. Always in the lead, when the Red Cross conducts its annual fund-raising campaign, Galiano has, for two years, been the first country community in the province to conclude its canvass.

At the head of the island campaign has been Mrs. Nanette New, enthusiastic, popular and always smiling.

Mrs. New was smiling when she received the service badge of the Red Cross from Col. Gordon B. Sturtevant, president of the B.C. Division. The recipient shrugged off the kudos. The result of the annual effort was not her responsibility, but that of her helpers, she said.

The award came as a recognition of her untiring efforts during the campaigns. On foot and on bicycle, in fine weather and bad, Mrs. New makes a point of visiting every home on the island, either personally or with the aid of her staff. The island is not large, but its roads, during the wet season, are sufficient to dismay any but the most fervent, the Red Cross learned.

Mrs. New was postmistress on the island during the Second World War. This duty is carried out by her husband, Donald, in times of less stress.

NOTED SAILOR VISITS GALIANO

Michael Fitz-James, en route from Victoria to Vancouver on the last lap of his epic voyage from Norway aboard the "Maken", his 35-foot ketch-rigged ship, put into Whalers Bay to spend a couple of days at his old holiday grounds on Galiano.

As a boy, Michael spent most of his summer holidays with his family on Galiano and Gossip Islands.

C.C.F. IS VOICE OF SANITY

Speaking at a housemeeting at Elk Lake, Saturday night, Mrs. Laura Jamieson, former C.C.F. M.L.A., said:

"The C.C.F. is the voice of sanity in a world which sadly needs that voice. We emphasize the brotherhood of man, and stress two major principles. First, we are our brothers' keepers, and those who are strong through the gifts of God, are responsible for those who are less fortunate. Secondly, what we desire for ourselves we wish for all."

"The C.C.F. attacks the materialist conception of capitalism, she told her audience. It appeals to the people's conscience. The old parties were rejected because they rejected morality. The core of socialism is the extension of freedom to include, with the right to vote, freedom from insecurity, fear, want, unemployment, loss due to illness and accident, the broader and greater freedom of the Co-operative Commonwealth.

R. M. McIntosh, C.C.F. candidate for Esquimalt-Saanich, said: "No party but the C.C.F. has a consistent policy and program. The old line parties and their successor, Social Credit, not having real programs, attack the integrity and honesty of their opponents and arrogate to themselves all the virtues."

The C.C.F. presents its policy based on humanity first; its determination to establish national health insurance and social security and adjust pensions to meet rising costs.

Mr. McIntosh's meeting was the first political meeting held for many years at North Galiano, either pro or anti-socialized.

Heads Board

HOWARD CHALK

Manager of the Ganges branch of the Bank of Montreal, Howard Chalk will head the campaign now opening for a new hospital at Ganges to serve all the Gulf Islands.

Preliminary Plans Laid

The first meeting of the Gulf Islands Hospital Organization Committee was held this week when plans were drawn up to organize the Gulf Islands into a Hospital Improvement District. The meeting was addressed by Lloyd Detwiler, commissioner of the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service, Victoria, who outlined the procedure to be taken in planning a new hospital.

The committee was pleasantly surprised to learn of the co-operation and financial assistance that would be forthcoming from the B.C.H.I.S. Different problems were thoroughly discussed and petition forms are now being readied to be used in the canvass of the property owners of the

Successful Elsewhere

Mr. Detwiler pointed out that while the elected trustees had the power to borrow, it was necessary for them to present their plans to a meeting of the property owners, after which the B.C.H.I.S. and the department of finance would have to authorize any advances. In this way any increase in the original rate paid by the property owners was unlikely.

The board was encouraged to learn that the Hospital Improvement Plan has proven very successful at other B.C. points and realize the plan will enable the Gulf Islands to obtain a first class hospital on very reasonable terms.

Full Slate of Candidates Expected For Two Areas

While the lists now appear to be filled in Esquimalt-Saanich for the forthcoming federal election on August 10, there is yet time for further nominations to be made.

In the Islands there are already nominated a member from each political party having any following in the province with the exception of the Social Crediters.

With the announcement of Deane Finlayson's candidacy for the Progressive Conservative party there remains only a Social Credit candidate to be named other than possible independents.

Nomination day will be Monday of next week. As from that day the lists will be closed and the contest will be setting into its final phase and campaign.

YOUNG CYCLIST INJURED IN COLLISION

David Wilkening, young son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wilkening, Deep Cove, was hospitalized for several days over the week-end, when he was injured in a collision with a car on Birch Road, on Thursday.

Sidney detachment of the R.C.M.P. reported that the accident victim was riding his bicycle on Birch Road on the wrong side of the highway. He struck a car travelling in the opposite direction, driven by James C. Carson, Victoria. The car had already come to a standstill at the time of the impact, police stated.

The boy was taken to Rest Haven Hospital by Fred Sparks, whose home is in the vicinity of the scene of the accident, where he was treated by Dr. W. H. Roberts, for lacerated scalp and bruises.

Police urge that all children riding bicycles should comply with regulations and avoid competitive riding.

GOOD FISHING IS REPORTED

Excellent fishing throughout the area is reported this week. An impressive number of fish have been taken during the past two weeks and few enthusiasts have returned to dock without a catch.

Randle Matthews, of Randle's Landing, reports a number of extensive catches. W. T. Lawrie, Victoria, reported one of the best catches. He hooked 28 salmon off Coal Island. Of that total 11 escaped and 15 were landed. He was using a Mac's Squid plug.

R. Davis has also experienced success in the Coal Island area. He has taken 25 or 30 fish from that vicinity, including a 26 and a 15-pounder. Mr. Davis has also found a herring strip successful at East Point.

Other successful anglers reported by Mr. Matthews are Charles Adderson, Major C. Buckle, W. Hamilton, Mr. Hills, Douglas Godwin, Ian Douglas.

WATER SUPPLY RESOLUTION IS NOT ENDORSED

Central Saanich council, last week, failed to endorse a resolution from Vernon, B.C., calling for a modification of the Municipal Act in order to permit of a choice in service provided.

The mainland city wrote explaining that if a municipality sets up its own water district it is controlled by the Municipal Act. If it should serve consumers outside its boundaries it becomes a public utility and is then controlled by the rulings of the Public Utilities Commission. The city stated that it was already serving residents outside the limits of the city and that the commission had ruled that service must now be provided to a further outside resident.

Central Saanich was asked to endorse a resolution that a city or municipality be empowered to make its own decisions in such matters.

Central Saanich was unlikely to serve outsiders in the event that a department was set up, decided councillors. No action was taken in view of the fact that sympathy with the motion was divided.

BEFORE you BUY TELEVISION YOU WILL BE WISE TO SEE

Scores of satisfactory Television installations have been made by Butler Brothers all over Saanich and the Gulf Islands, and the reason for the success of these Butler Bros. installations lies in the fact that the trained technicians in charge of Butler Bros. Television Department determine beforehand just the exact nature and height of the aerial required for the best possible reception.

In this way your installation is pre-tested before you make any decision and you are able to avoid the unnecessary installation costs and disappointments of which you have heard some owners complain. Pictured above is the Butler

Bros. specially-constructed TEST AERIAL, which would be brought right to your home to make preliminary tests. And when you select your set here you have a wide range of models to choose from bearing such famous names as VICTOR, WESTINGHOUSE and ADMIRAL, with prices starting as low as $269.50. And, of course, if you already own a Television Set our complete equipment and experience are at your service. You will find helpful service and complete information at our Keating Cross Road Headquarters, shown above, and telephone Keating 90, or at our Quadra and Cloverdale showrooms Phone E 6911. HE GROWS DUCKS IN HIS GARDEN

T. P. Chappell of Henry Ave., Sidney, is growing ducks. In the spring he plants the seeds in his garden and later he reaps his harvest.

Mr. Chappell's granddaughter,
Madelyn McKenzie brought into
The Review office a new potato, which her grandfather had dug from his garden. It was almost a perfect duck in appearance.

The duck, however, is more likely to taste of roast potato when cooked.
It is also much quieter than the normal animal.

IT HASTENED
CARPENTER?
Reeve Sydney Pickles last week assured The Review during the council meeting of Central Saanich that the purchase of a press table did not have its origin in a recent comment in this newspaper.

The reeve added that the complaint voiced by The Review might well have hastened the carpenter responsible.

CHAMBER LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN

Taking part in the nation-wide "Get Out and Vote Campaign," sponsored by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce has prepared the following warning.

The statement was issued by Alan Calvert, secretary-treasurer of the chamber, this week.

Too often we are inclined to take for granted the rights and privileges which we enjoy as citizens of a free and democratic country. Despite the lessons which two world wars with-in a generation should have taught us, we still fondly believe that "it can't happen here". Although all about us we hear the sound of alien, bestial ideologies gnawing at the roots of democracy, we insist that whatever may take place in the other countries of the world, our individual rights will remain.

"We are far too prone to look upon government as a power above and beyond us—a paternalistic body with the authority and responsibility necessary to guide us along the economic and social road of life. We forget that ours is the power—ours is the authority which government exercises only at our behest! We forget that government consists of our representatives voicing our opinions and acting with the authority which we have delegated.

Responsibilities

"When we stop to consider these facts we must realize that the power and authority which exists in the individual—in each and every one of us—carries with it corresponding duties and responsibilities. The most important of these duties is to exercise his franchise—to raise our voices as free men, as individuals, in the selection of those who will act as our representatives.

"If we fail to acknowledge our responsibility in this connection then all the blood that has been spilled, all the tears that have been shed, all the damage that has been wrought by the crushing years of war and the martyrdom of uneasy peace has been in vain. Let it not be said of us that we let freedom wither and die because we have failed to exercise it.

"In the 1949 general election more than one and three-quarter million registered voters failed to cast their ballots. Surely that must not happen again. We, as good citizens, as men and women aware of the duties as well as the rights of citizenship must resolve to do two things.

Non-Partisan

"Firstly we must each make sure that our name is on the voters' list and secondly we must each cast our ballot on Monday, August 10.

"This is not a partisan appeal but rather an appeal to our patriotism, to our sense of citizenship, so that there might be awakened an appreciation of the power and authority which resides in us.

Poultry marketings are about sufficient for a moderate demand.

Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichton Experimental Station

Apple trees are worthy of more care than they usually receive. Early varieties are ready for use in July and at this date (July 14) two very fine fully mature Close apples, from the garden of R. M. Hamblett, Brentwood, are on our desk.

These apples are practically solid red in color and give forth a very appetizing aroma. Close apples have been picked at the Station as early as July 4. Much truth lies in the old saying "An apple a day keeps the doctor away". Such being the case, trees should receive the pruning, spraying and care of which they are worthy.

A few hours spent in pruning while trees are dormant will keep them shapely and open and will allow sunshine to penetrate to the north side. Two or three well timed sprays will pay big dividends. Western Canker (Anthracnose) is prevalent on apple trees throughout this coastal area.

This disease requires an August spray of Bordeaux or other copper formulation if it is to be held in check. In old trees, badly cankered wood should be removed and new growth encouraged. Young trees should receive protection before cankers develop.

An excellent pamphlet on "Anthracnose of Apple Trees" has been published by the provincial department of agriculture and is available from the publications branch or at this station.

Fertilizer

Several articles have appeared in our column on liquid fertilizers recently. Here is what Dr. H. Hill, division of horticulture, Central Experimental Farm, has to say on the subject. "Many apple growers have become interested in the possibility of applying nitrogen to their orchards in the form of foliage sprays.

While the usual inorganic sources of nitrogen, such as ammonium sulphate or ammonium nitrate are likely to cause foliage burning, it has been found that at the proper concentration nitrogen in the form of urea may be safely applied as a foliage spray and is readily absorbed by the foliage.

In sod orchards undoubtedly some of the nitrogen applied as a soil application is absorbed by the sod and only released later when the grass is mown and has decomposed. But only under very tight sod conditions are soil applications of nitrogen unavailable to the trees in sufficient quantity.

Under average conditions, then, it is questionable whether any advantage other than convenience of application is to be gained by the application of nitrogen by means of foliage sprays as opposed to soil applications.

While leaf sprays of urea nitrogen cause more rapid nitrogen effects than are obtained from soil applications, their effects tend to be temporary. For this reason if foliage applied nitrogen is used as the only source it may be necessary to apply a minimum of three sprays at a concentration of five pounds in 100 gallons.

More nitrogen will be absorbed and the effect will be greater as the leaf area increases. That is, three early post-bloom sprays applied 10 days apart will produce a greater effect than the three sprays applied at an earlier date. However, trials have indicated that a three-spray program ending as late as the second cover spray may lower fruit color and skin quality.

Because of their quick effect it is suggested that foliage sprays with urea may be considered as emergency treatments supplementary to soil applications, rather than replacing them. In attempting to produce high quality fruit and avoid excess nitrogen influences a grower may find that he has not applied sufficient nitrogen to the soil early in the spring.

Slight symptoms of low nitrogen early in the growing season due to miscalculation in respect to soil nitrogen requirements may be corrected quickly by means of foliage spray. When a previously cultivated orchard is seeded to form a permanent sod, nitrogen starvation effects are often evident in the trees because sufficient additional nitrogen has not been applied to the soil to take care of competition.

Such a condition noted early in the growing season could be readily corrected by one or more foliage sprays.

Cut-Flowers

Flowers cut in the afternoon keep longer than flowers cut in the morning.

CHEERY MESSAGE FROM BOULDER

The Review received a cheery message from former Sidney residents, Ted and Ruth Scott, who now make their home in Boulder, Colorado, U.S.A. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were for a number of years, both members of the staff of Rest Haven Hospital.

"We look forward each week," said the letter, "to receiving our weekly home paper, from which we receive much news of interest. We also note that while you had a cool June we had a real hot month here."

ing, according to J. W. Mastalerz, reporting in the Canadian Florist Magazine. This may come as a surprise to many of us as most people are of the opinion that morning cut flowers are preferred.

Apparently the explanation has to do with the carbohydrate content of the flowers which is higher in flowers cut in the afternoon. Carbohydrates are manufactured during the daylight hours, while at night they are utilized in respiration and translocated to other parts of the plant. Next time you cut yourself a bouquet from the garden perhaps you may recall this recent theory and put it to the test by comparing some cut at both times.

The Liberals say they can't cut your taxes!

WE CAN... WE WILL!

the Main Issue in this election is YOUR MONEY!

We will budget for Government's legitimate needs... we will stop budgeting for bloated surpluses which—in three years—took from the people's pockets the staggering sum of $1,618,000,000 more than the Government needed.

We will end the shocking conditions in our Defence Department which the Government's own investigator, (Col. G. S. Currie) described as: "A general breakdown in the system of administration, supervision and accounting... Accounting records in a chaotic condition and of little use in determining the nature and extent of irregularities... Waste and inefficiency far more costly in loss than that covered by actual dishonesty".

We will provide the nation with an administration whose attitude towards the spending of public monies will be one of prudence and common sense. A new Government in itself will mean substantial savings to the taxpayer—it will replace a Government whose arrogant indifference to economy was best expressed by Mr. Howe's scornful remark, "What's a Million?". Or, "If they need a gold-plated piano it is our duty to buy it".

We will reduce or eliminate countless hidden, indirect taxes which grossly inflate the cost of consumer goods, add to the grievous cost of living, increase the price of homes beyond the capacity of most of our people to pay, discourage saving and initiative.

We will reduce federal taxes by at least $500,000,000 a year... without reducing any pensions, family allowances, or other social security payments.

$500,000,000 TAX CUT NOW!

Recipe for health

A prescription is a recipe for health. It represents a physician's scientific diagnosis and careful decision as to the best method of treating a particular illness. The responsibility imposed upon a physician in diagnosing illness and prescribing treatment is equal to the value given life. Second only to the responsibility of the physician is the responsibility of the pharmacist who compounds and dispenses the prescribed medication. This is a responsibility which we are well prepared to accept. We consider it a privilege to serve.

WITH ROD and GUN IN NORTH SAANICH

A run of coho has been reported during the past week, with good catches being made at East Point, South Pender and the south end of Sidney Island. Good reports come also from Saanichton Spit, while Coal Island Point has been a favorite spot for those who prefer that neighborhood. Herring strip, Kam Lures and Mac's Squid plugs are proving very effective.

Andy Moore, of Deep Cove, topped the list last week with a 31 pound 8 ounce salmon. Benny Armstrong, also of Deep Cove, boated one 14 pounds 12 ounces. Both fish were caught in the Deep Cove Area.

Others reporting catches include Claude Buckle, N. Shillitto, J. Gibault, E. J. McFeeley, J. Gurton and E. Ditlevson.

CANDIDATE DRAWS LARGE ATTENDANCE

One of the largest crowds seen in the Mayne Island Community Hall for some years greeted Gavin Moutat on Wednesday evening of last week. The Liberal candidate in the Nanaimo federal riding was introduced by the chairman, Mr. Lord.

Mr. Lord, in his introductory address, commented that Mr. Moutat was too well known in the constituency to require any introduction.

It was the first evening political meeting on the island for many years, and Mr. Moutat was given an encouraging reception.

The candidate promised that he would bear in mind the difficulties of the Islanders should his campaign be successful. Having lived among the islands for many years, he was close to the problems of the residents, he explained.

Aged Veteran Marks Birthday Here

Fred Bowcott, Fourth St., Sidney, one of the oldest veterans in the province, celebrated his 84th birthday on Sunday, July 19. Mr. and Mrs. Bowcott were entertained at the Quadra St. home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bowcott.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO SYMPHONY ON SUNDAY

All roads led to Butchart Gardens last Sunday afternoon when nearly 1,000 cars from all parts of the continent swung into the spacious parking lots. There were license plates from Ontario, Manitoba, Idaho, California, Kansas and, of course, British Columbia.

Hans Gruber is a most pleasing conductor and it was a delight to watch him conduct the Victoria Symphony Orchestra as they swung softly into the Orchestral Suite from Carmen by Bizet. The music had a special sweetness in that lovely garden where a fountain played and birds sang. The violins and flute were pure, clear, precise and utterly sweet. It was as if some essence were distilled between sky, trees, audience and music, something not to be attained in concert halls.

The Prelude from Verdi's Traviata Act I followed, then two solos by the guest artist, Miss Irene Byatt, a contralto, whose round, full voice filled the open air with utmost ease. She sang "Dido's Lament" and then "Habenera" from Carmen, after which the orchestra played the Overture to Die Fledermaus by Johann Strauss.

Mr. Gruber announced an inter-campaign. Mr. Bowcott is the oldest living member of the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans of Canada. He joined the initial group in North Africa prior to the turn of the century.

mission of "exactly one half hour", so that the audience might procure refreshments and stroll about the gardens.

Daylight Concert
The second half of the program consisted of two solos by Miss Byatt, then the 6th Symphony in F by Beethoven, the Pastorale.

The fourth and final concert will be on the evening of Thursday, July 30, at 8 p.m., so that the audience may enjoy the gardens in daylight and then see them as an illuminated fairland. Mr. Gruber has promised to play selections from Oklahoma, during this last performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Ross have done a fine thing in opening the gardens to a promenade symphony of this kind. Nowhere in the world is there a lovelier setting and, given the opportunity, people will come long distances to hear fine music in such surroundings.—J.C.

There was also swimming in the water nearby. A treasure hunt was the final game, followed by a bonfire and wiener roast on the beach. All refreshments were donated by the Mothers' Auxiliary of Deep Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lardner, New Westminster, are guests at The Chalet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stanford, San Diego, Calif., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Newling, Cypress Road.
